

Interfaith Prayer Service, post-Prop 8 verdict

When the Perry vs. Schwarzenegger verdict comes, the world will be watching San Francisco. Spiritual communities who support marriage equality will play an important role in the community response. The Coalition for Welcoming Congregations, a program of the Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies in Religion and Ministry, is organizing an interfaith prayer service following the announcement of the verdict, and we hope you will join us.

When: When: Tuesday, August 10, from 7:00 pm to 8:30pm. (Note: Service will happen regardless of case outcome.)

Where: Congregation Sha'ar Zahav
290 Dolores Street (corner of 16th Street)
San Francisco, CA

What: A Taizé-inspired service featuring music, speakers, and candlelight prayer time. To empower the community, and center us individually, for the work that's ahead.

Who: LGBTQ and allied people; all are welcome.
